

Mirela Skelac, PhD, is a senior adviser for primary education at the Education and Teacher Training Agency, a licensed supervisor and a member of the Croatian Society for Supervision and Organizational Development (HDSOR is a full member of the Association of National Organizations for Supervision in Europe) and a member of the Association for Reality Therapy of the Republic of Croatia (HURT). As the licensed supervisor, she works with the supervisory groups in the educational institutions and supervises expert teams in the projects of the inclusive school. She publishes works from the field of supervision and work with parents.