

Slobodan Nikolić graduated Military Psychology at Military Academy in Belgrade, under Petar Kostić, PhD. In his diploma work he dealt with issues of combat stress in naval operations, which was the pioneering work in both Yugoslav and Serbian Army. He finished 3-years education for dream analyst in Center for Depth Psychology and Dream Analysis „Carl Gustav Jung“ in Belgrade, under Ivan Nastović, PhD's supervision. In 2016 he got diploma from The Delaney & Flowers Dream and Consultation Center (San Francisco, USA), under supervision of Gayle Delaney, PhD. In 2016 he finished educational course in neuropsychology with Mark Solms, PhD, the head of Neuropsychology in University of Cape Town, SAR and president of International Neuropsychology Society.

He is the founder of Center for Depth Psychological Dream Research Center IMAGO. He gives individual and group counselling and therapy sessions for adults. He has had dream analysis groups in Belgrade, Pančevo, Novi Sad and Vukovar.